Message From The President Barker Edwards

There have been a number of changes that have taken place in the CC-AWA since last years conference. The first being I was elected president of the association after Ron Lawrence decided to step down after 40 years of being president. Also changes have been made in the location of the conference room and the old equipment contest room. We are making this change to try to cut the cost of the conference down some. If it does not work to everyone's liking, we will move back to the lager rooms next year. Also we decided not to provide meals this year. It was decided to let everyone eat when and where they would like. So everyone bear with us to see how it works out.

Judy L. Edwards In Loving Memory!

The largest change for me is when I lost my loving wife of 40 years on November 1st.

Not only has the loss of Judy affected me, but it has affected the CC-AWA also. Judy did a lot for the CC-AWA that not many people saw. She worked on the data base for the CC-AWA, published the news letter and conference brochure since 2003, and put the new web page together a few years ago. She was a self thought master with the computer.

She had started the 2019 conference brochure just before she went into the hospital on August 14th. Very slowly I have been working on this brochure, because I am not as versed with MS Publisher as she was.

She came last year to the 2018 conference and had a good time. She was looking forward to come to this year's conference, but things did not work out that way. I sure miss her, she was a very smart and talented lady.

Auction

of the John & Mary Mode Collection

The late club member John Mode collection will be auctioned on Thursday evening March 21 starting at 7:00PM.

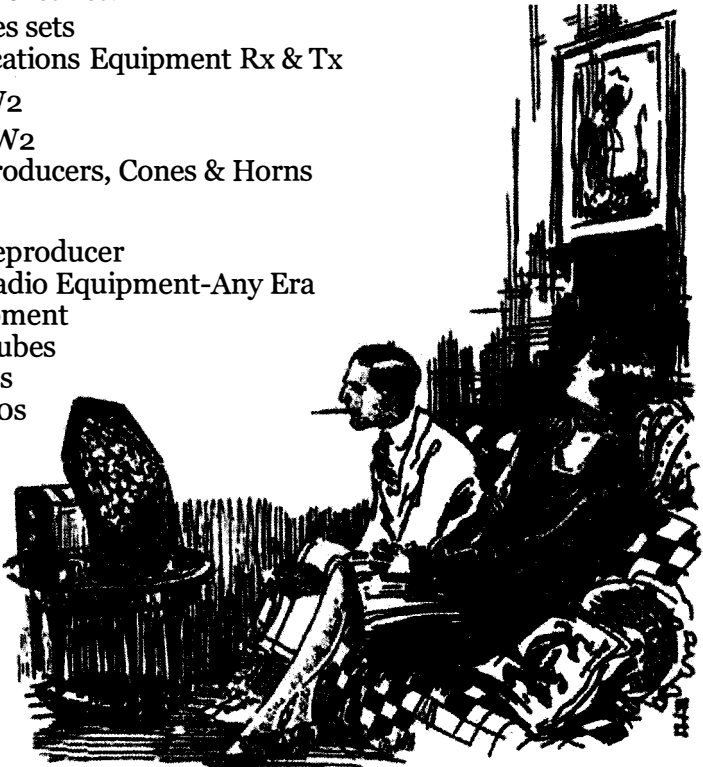

John was an avid collector of all things Zenith Radio from the mid 1930s to the 1970s. He loved to spend time in his shop fixing as many radios as he could to good playing condition. While Zenith was a special interest, many more similar home and portable radios from other manufacturers also made their way to his home. On March 21, 2019 the majority of his collection will be auctioned to the highest bidder at the Antique Radio Charlotte 2019 conference at the Sheraton Charlotte Airport Hotel. There are currently about 150 radios plus related items identified in the to be auctioned. The majority are in good to excellent cosmetic condition and many have been serviced in recent years. Some of the lesser value items will be grouped into lots so that the sale can be completed in a timely fashion. Other lesser items may be placed for sale in the Friday morning "Le Mans Start" flea market. The CC-AWA.CLUB website has preview photos of many of the items to be auctioned and an inventory listing of most items in the sale. Only a very few items will have minimum reserve bid limits of approximately 50% of the estimated market value.

IN GENERAL

- CCAWA makes no claims as to the ownership, authenticity or operating condition of any goods put up for sale. WHAT YOU SEE IS WHAT YOU GET.
- You must be registered for this CCAWA annual conference in order to participate as a buyer or seller.
- It is our intention to have volunteers on duty at all times that the auction preview room is unlocked. However; the hotel or the organizers of this conference will not be held liable for theft, loss or damages to property consigned for this auction.
- The Friday evening auction will be limited to 175 total lots. You are advised to get your items consigned as early as possible.
- We hope to have the auction room open all day on Thursday and from mid morning Friday until the auction cutoff time of 12 noon.
- The Auction is scheduled to start at 1pm Friday afternoon.
- CCAWA charges the seller a 10% commission to help to defray costs of this conference. There is no buyer premium.

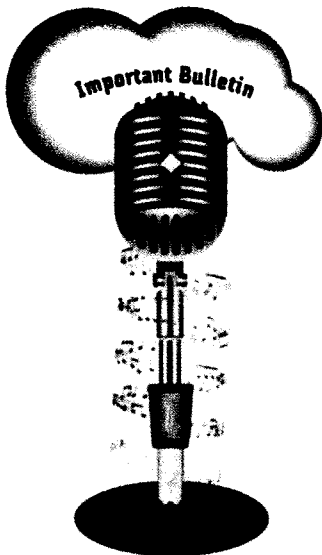

HOW TO CONSIGN AN ITEM FOR AUCTION

- Each attendee may consign up to 10 lots brought to check-in on Friday after 2pm that, in the opinion of the auction staff, each lot will sell for $35 or more. If you contact Robert Lozier of the auction staff more than two weeks before the start of the conference it may be possible to submit up to an additional 15 lots if the staff thinks that each additional lot will sell for greater than $60.
- Write the minimum bid on the white copy only.
- The auction committee reserves the right to refuse any lots for auction.
- Your item (or box lot) must have a reasonable expectation of bringing a closing bid of at least $35 in order to consign to the Friday auction. Note: We have a $35 Minimum.
- Auction cards will not be given out until the auction staff has been given the chance to see your auction items.
- Fill out the card and keep the bottom PINK sheet for yourself as proof of ownership should the item not make a minimum bid that you may elect to place on the item.

- We have drafting tape available for you to hold the YELLOW sheet to your item. If that does not work, we have string tags that you can staple to the YELLOW sheet so that the sheet will hang from the item.
- Give the top WHITE sheet(s) to the volunteer that places your items into the auction preview area. They will check to see that the form is filled out correctly.

PAYMENT.

- The CC-AWA is not able to accept any payment via any form of credit card, debit card or other electronic transaction. It is at the sole discretion of the auction cashier whether to accept payment in any form other than cash in US dollars.
- If you are not known by the cashier and wish to make payment by check or travelers checks, you must notify us in advance and receive acknowledgment that the cashier will accept your payment method.
